CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Anne,

I joined the call late and it looks like it ended before I could get on. I would like to extend my apologies to Judge Tarnofsky and opposing counsel for the mix up. It appears that while I was out of the office, my paralegal opened the email from the court and moved it to another folder, which I didn't see until now. This morning, I was tied up with family matters and didn't see your note until moments before I responded.

If not too late, I would be happy to participate in a re-scheduled call, any time that the Judge wishes.

Sincerely,

Ed Pennington

I just saw this; for some reason we did not get it when it originally was sent.
